Copy of Certified Statement, The name of Gayasuddin, the ancestor of the appellant, is found associated with the affairs of the Makkam. The office is a hereditary one & the J.D.O decided the case in favour of the appellant, wherein the latter is styled Mujawir, which name is not found connected with the management of Makkam. (Vide Sec" 19 - page 55 of the Mlg. Manual). The view taken both by the D.C & the M.C. appears to be mainly based on the duties which, they say, could not be performed by the daughter of Khadim Name & as such she was not considered as a successor to the original Makkandar.

1) Whether the Manager of the Makkam is known as Mujawar or Muttavalli & whether how long since the name of the ancestors of the appellant are associated with the Makkam are matters to be verified on receipt of records. As there appears to be some force in the contentions of the appellant it is for him & if the records bear this report may be called for ---

Petition dt 2-10-39 filed by the Counsel for the Appellant furnishing a certified copy of the Asst Commissioner's Office's order No A-C-748/19-20 dt 3-3-26 appointing Mohadin Ibn Khadri, grandson of the deceased Khatumbi.

The Makkam at Malawadi - Kankanhalli is a muz. Dastn. enjoying devadaya land grant.

The original Makkandar is one Sayed Khutbe Alam Shah Khadri. He died leaving a minor son by name Mohadin Mohsin Shah Khadri & a daughter by name Khatumbi. As Mohadin Mohsin Shah Khadri was still a minor at the time of his father's death, his brother-in-law, Zaya-uddin, (husband of Khatumbi) was looking after the duties of the Makkandar & managing its affairs. Son-in-law were managing the Institution (vide joints & enjoying the inam lands. The Kittu deeds were also issued in their names jointly. (In this connection it may be pointed out that it is not clear why the minor Son did not object to his brother-in-law, Rayasuvin, managing the affairs of the Makkan after he (Son) became a major). When Rayasuvin also died leaving no male issue, his wife, Khatoonbi, (daughter of the original trustee) willed away the inam lands enjoyed by her & her husband, & the interest in the Makkan in favour of her daughter's son who is the present Appellant. (Whether such devolution of title by means of will is in vogue & recognised according to the Mohammedan Law is not a point for consideration) The S.D.O. Closepet dismissed that the Appellant was should be registered as a Mujavir in place of Khatoonbi. The Respondent, who is the son's son or Grandson of the original Makkanavar appealed against this non-tendering against the right of the Appellant to hold the post & enjoy the Inam lands attached to it. The D.C. Bangalore. did held that the Mujavirship of the Mallaan Shastri by right, go to the respondent who is the grandson of the original Mallaanwar. This decision was against appealed in the Deputy Commr's Court by the Appellant. But the learned Dy. Commr also agreed with the D.C. & upheld his judgment. Against this order of the D.C. the present appeal is brought before the Govt.

To Form G.O. No. 3848/Rev/33-20-8 Dy 28/4/21 it will be seen that Govt have recognised Bandu Khanabi, daughter of the original Mallaanwar, as a hissadar. The point now for consideration is whether she can transfer this right to her grand son. (Mayan ee sangatee), the present Appellant, by means of a will. This point may perhaps be got clear by referring the case to the Law Section.

Rs 15/10 Rs 4/7/5-16-4 is forwarded up - This is about the Mayavaram post in Nalbagal Durga wherein it has been held that though females are excluded from holding any office (Mayai appointments in Inam) it does not necessarily imply that the same descendants of the female line should succeed. At the time of the late Baramandan's death, her son (the respondent's father) happened to be a minor & consequently Syed Hyderamdan (the son. in. law of the Baramandan) looked after the Makkam & the properties primarily on behalf of the real claimant. Although this state of affairs continued even Though the repat reveals certain important facts against the Respondents in whose favour the appeal has been decided, it has been received too late because final orders on the appeal have already been issued. Besides, both the D.C. & the Mrs. Commr. are silent about the suggestion of the Auditor & the S.D. that the management of the Malkan may be taken over by the Govt. In the circumstances, the only course open now is perhaps to request the Mrs. Commr. to warn the Respondent that if he does not manage the institution satisfactorily, Govt. will be free to resume management of the Malkan & its properties.

Muz. Appeal No.18 of 1938-39 about the management of the Makkan at Maralavadi in Nankanhalli Taluk.

Appellant:- Syed Sha Mohadeen Khadri

Respondent:- Khutbe Alam Sha Khadri

The Mohadeen Momin Sha Khadri and Gayasuddin Sha Khadri Makkan at Maralavadi is a minor Muzrai Institution endowed with 37 acres 25 guntas of inam lands assessed at Rs.36-8-0. One Syed Khutbe Alam Sha Khadri was the last Makkandar and he died leaving a son, Mohadeen Momin Sha Khadri (Respondent's father) and a daughter named Khatumbi. As Mohadeen Momin Sha Khadri was still a minor at the time of his father's death ~~the management of~~ the Makkan ~~was registered jointly in his name and that of~~ became under the management of his brother-in-law Gayasuddin Sha Khadri (Khatumbi's husband). The lands endowed to the Makkan were enjoyed by both these persons and the title deed is also reported to have been issued in their name jointly.

Gayasuddin Khadri died somewhere about the year 1906 or 1907 without a male issue and his widow who continued to enjoy half the lands endowed to the Makkan willed away her share of the lands including her interest in the Makkan to her daughter's son, Syed Sha Mohadeen Khadri (appellant), in the year 191 . She and her representatives in title continued to enjoy the lands till 1919-20.

All this time, the Makkan is reported to have been in a state of disrepair and neither Momin Sha Khadri nor Khatumbi's representatives were rendering any service in it though both were enjoying the inam lands. In the meantime, Momin Sha Khadri made an attempt to restore the Makkan, but owing to misunderstandings between himself and the other hissadars, the repairs were not executed

Govt. interfered in the management of the Makkan in the year 1919-20, as it was left in a neglected state by the hissadars, and attached the crops on the inam lands endowed to it and credited the proceeds to the Makkan funds, with a view to utilising it for restoring the Makkan.

This arrangement continued until 1923 when Momin Sha Khadri's portion of the lands was restored to him as he offered to pay his share of the cost of renovating the institution. That portion of the lands which were formerly in the enjoyment of Khatumbi's grandson, however, continued to be leased out year after year by the Amildar until March 1926 when the S.D.O. Chickballapur, ordered that Mohadeen Sha Khadri grandson of Khatumbi should succeed to her interest in the Makkan. Though neither Momin Sha Khadri nor his son, Khutbe Alam Sha Khadri (the respondent), filed a formal appeal against this order, it is seen from records that they were all the while questioning the right of Khatumbi and her successors to the joint management of the Makkan and the joint enjoyment of its inam lands. In May 1930 the respondent filed a petition before the Deputy Commissioner, Bangalore, requesting that the management of the Makkan may be given to him alone as he was the proper claimant to the place. Again in July 1935 Khutbe Alam Sha Khadri, the respondent, petitioned to the then S.D.O. Closepet, to cancel the joint patta which was issued in the name of his grand father and Fayasuddin Sha Khadri and to recognise him as the sole manager. The S.D.O. declined to interfere in the matter as final orders had already been passed by his predecessor in office and he was not competent to go into the question again.

Against this order, the Respondent preferred an appeal before the Deputy Commissioner Bangalore District questioning the rights of the present Appellant to hold the office and to enjoy a share of the inam lands belonging to the Makkan. The Deputy Commr. set aside the orders of the S.D.O. He ordered that the Mujavirship of the Makkan should by right go to Khutbe Alam Sha's (the last Makkandar) son's son, (the respondent) in entirety and that the Devadaya Inam lands endowed to the Institution should also be enjoyed by him alone after making due provision for the upkeep and maintenance of the Makkan.

This order of the Deputy Commissioner was appealed against in the Court of the Muzrai Commissioner by Syed Sha Mohadeen Khadri, (the Counter-petitioner, in the case before the Deputy Commissioner and the appellant before Government in the present case.) The Muzrai Commissioner agreed with the decision of the Deputy Commissioner Baravardar) looked after the Wakkan and the properties presumably on behalf of the real claimant. Although this state of affairs continued even after Kayasuddin's death and Khatumbi was in enjoyment of half of the properties, this cannot be deemed to give any claim to Khatumbi to form a fresh stock of descendants or to take away the office or the properties of the Wakkan. In this view it is submitted that the orders of the lower court do not call for interference".

"Note by the General Secretary"

"I agree with the above view. The appeal may be posted and heard."

Re: The Right of Management of the Makhan at Maralawadi, Kankanhalli.

The appellant abovenamed begs to prefer this appeal from the order of the Learned Muzrai Commissioner, Bangalore in Muzrai Appeal No. 38 of 37-38 on the file of his Court, rejecting - the appeal and confirming the order of the Learned Deputy Commissioner, Bangalore in Muz Case No. C.S.- 1171/35-36 directing the respondent to be the sole Muthavalli of Maralawadi Makhan and that and that he should enjoy the Inam lands, etc. on the following among other grounds:-

Facts of the case:-

1. The right to manage the Hajarath Gayasuddin Sha Khadri Makhan at Maralawadi village Kankanhalli Taluk, originally vested in one late Gayasuddin and from him the right devolved on Syed Gayasuddeen Sha Khadri, his grand-son. The original hukdar late Gayasudden had two wives. The appellant is the descendant through the 1st wife and the respondent through the second wife. The Geneological tree, herewith appended, will disclose the relationship of the parties.

2. The right of Management of the Makhan has however been devolving and being enjoyed by the descendants of late Gayasuddeen through his first wife. The last male holder of the Office in this line, late Gayasuddeen Sha Khadri having had no male issues, he married his daughter Mahammed Unnisa, to Syed Abdul - Latiff, who was his sister's son, and retained him in his house to assist him in the management of the Makhan and after the death of the said Gayasuddeen Sha Khadri, his wife Khatumbi who succeeded to the office, through a Registered Will executed on 12-3-1913 entrusted the management of the Makhan to her son-in-law the said Syed Abdul Lateeff. Since then the said person Syed Abdul Lateef and after him, his son the his son the present appellant have been attending to and carrying on the religious functions of the Makhan quite to the satisfaction of the Government and the devotees.

3. But the Inam lands, attached to the Mkhan have been in possession and enjoyment of both the appellant's family members and the members of the respondent's family, in equal shares, in accordance with and in perstance of the terms of will executed by Khatumbee. The members of the respondent's family have never before attended to the religious functions of the Makhan. The appellant's father, Syed Sha Mohammed Abdul Latiff, became the Manager of the Makhan in the year 1913 and since then the said Abdul Latiff and after him the present appellant have been managing the Makhan affairs for over 20 years. The respondent also has approved and acquiesced of the same and he has not taken any objection. In the year 1919 - 1920 the question of Muthuvalliship of this Makhan having come into consideration, the Learned Sub-Division Officer, Closepet, was pleased to pass an order, in No. A.C. 748 of 19-20 dated 3-3-1926 directing that both the appellant and respondents family members should carry on the services in the Makhan by rotation of one year each. No appeal was preferred by the respondent as against this order and ever since the said order was passed, the appellant himself has been carrying the functions of the Makhan but the Inam lands are how-however being enjoyed by both the families in equal shares as before.

4. Now after the lapse of several years, the respondent, having petitioned to the Sub-Division Officer, for appointing him as the sole Manager of the Makhan, on the ground, he is the sole Hukdar, the Learned Subdivision - Officer, dismissed the petition and on appeal preferred by him the Learned Deputy Commissioner has passed an order in Muz Case No. C.3.-1171/35-36 appointing the respondent as the Sole Manager. Whereon, the appellant preferred an appeal before the Learned Muzrai Commissioner in Muz-Appeal No. 38 of 37-38 and the said appeal also was dismissed. Hence this appeal.

G R O U N D S.-

1. The dispute regarding the Management had been finally decided once by the Learned Sub-Division Officer, in his order A.C. 748/19-20 dated 3-3-1926. Since no appeal was preferred by the ~~a~~ respondent, as against that order, the said order is final and the respondent is bound by the same in law. The - Lower Courts erred in reopenning the same question again and passing the orders now under appeal.

2. The appellant and prior to him his father have been enjoying the Right of Management for over 20 years exclusively and adversely to the respondent. The respondent's claim is is barred by limitation. The lower courts have failed to bestow their considerations to this point.

3. The will executed by Khatumbi is a family arrangement between the parties, for the conduct of the management of the Makhan itself. The Will itself has been operated upon between the parties and the respondent himself has - countenanced and actively accepted the terms of the same. Now the Lower Court erred in allowing the respondent, to set up a paramount title to the entire huk to the detriment and prejudice of the appellant.

4. The Learned Muzrai Commissioner while holding that a woman can be a Muthavalli of a Makhan, erred in holding that Khatumbi, is not a legal heir to the Office. The last Barawardar was Gayasuddin Sha Khadri and Khutbe Alam Sha was never, a manager of the Makhan. T h e Learned Muzrai Commissioner's observation that Khatumbi was not a successor to Khutbe Alam is erroneous.

5. The appellant, himself is the grand-son (Dohitra) ~~to the~~ i.e., daughter's son to the last Barwardar, and his father himself was the grand-son of the last Barawardar's father. The appellant is however, the nearest heir to the last Barawardar. The courts below have failed to consider the rights of the appellant in this perspective.

6. By the Will executed by Khatumbe, the the Right of Management of the Makhan was duly, and legally vested in appellant's father and after him the right has duly devolved upon the appellant. The appellant submits the right once vested cannot be divested.

7. The devotees of the Makhan have no any kind of complaints against the appellant The appellant is well qualified to look after the management and to attend the religious functions. The respondent is not at all qualified. The devotees of the Makhan also have no any - kind of complaints against the appellant.

8. The Lower courts orders are unjust, inequitable and otherwise not maintainable in law.

W h e r e f o r e, the appellant prays that this Honourable court may kindly be pleased, to pass an order (1) cancelling the orders of the Learned Muzrai Commissioner and the Learned Deputy Commissioner appointing the respondent as the sole, manager of the Maralawadi Makhan and restoring the order of the learned Sub-Division Officer appointing the appellant to carry on the services of the Makhan as before; (2) - Granting a stay order from executing the order of the Lower courts, pending disposal of this appeal.

TWELVE ANNAS FOUR ANNAS

In the Court of the Muzrai Commissioner in Mysore, Bangalore.

App. No. 38/37-38.

Appellant.	Vs.	Respondent.
Syed Sha Mohideen Khadri, S/o Syed Abdul Lateef Sha Khadri, Maralvadi, Kankanhalli Taluk.		Khutbe Alam Sha Khadri, S/o Meneim Sha Khadri, Maralvadi, Kankanhalli Taluk.

Subject.

Appeal against the Order of the Deputy Commissioner, Bangalore District, in Muz. Case No. C.3.– 1171/35-36, directing that the Respondent should be the Bole Mutthavalli of Masalvadi Makkan, and that ~~the~~ he should enjoy the inam lands and look to the up-keep of the Institution.

Facts of the Case.

One Kutbe Alam was the original makkandar of Maralvadi Makkan. At the time of the death of the Makkandar, his Son, Meneim Sha Khadri, Respondents father, was a minor and hence, his Sister's husband, Gayasudin Sha Khadri, (the mateual grand-father of the Appellant) was looking after the duties of the Makkandar, and managing its affairs, and subsequently, both the Son and the Son-in-law of the original Makkandar were managing the Institution jointly, enjoying the inam lands; and the title deed was also issued in their names jointly.

Gayasudin Sha Khadri died, leaving no male issue and his widow, Kalatumbi, (daughter of the original Makkandar) who is stated who is stated to have enjoyed half the inam lands attached to the Institution, willed away the same and also her interest in the Makkan, in favour of her daughter's son, the Appellant, who was also ordered to be re-gistered as a Mazavir in place of Kahatumbi, by the Sub-Division officer, Elesepet Sub-Division. The Respondent appealed to the Deputy Commissioner, against the order of the Sub-Division officer, Con-tending against the rights of the Appellant, to hold the post as also the inam lands attached to it.

The Deputy Commissioner has held that the Muzavirship of the Makkan should, by right, go to the Respondent, Khutbe Alam Sha Khadri's son's son; that the lands being Devadaya inam lands attached to the Makkan for up-keep and Service, should also go to the Muzavir or Muthavalli; that a woman cannot become a Muthavalli under the Muslim Law; that much less can she give that right to another and that she is certainly not entitled to either the lands attached to the Makkan or to Muthavallishipp, as the lands do not form the personal property of the last barawardar-Muthavalli. He, therefore, directed that the Appellant should be the Sole Muthavalli hence-forward and should enjoy the inam lands there of looking after the up-keep of the Institution.

The present appeal is against the above order.

The appeal came on for hearing on 4-4-1939, when the

when the Appellant by Mr. C.V. Narasimhaengar and the Respondent by Mr. N. Rama Iyengar, Advocates were present and heard.

Order. Appl 38/37-38 Date. 15-4-1939. 3-5-1939

It is not correct to say that a woman cannot be a Muthavalli under the Muslim Law. She can be a Muthavalli; but she cannot be a Muzavir. The duty of Muzavir is to lead the urus, read the Fateha, and burn the incense of the tomb. The maternal grandmother of the Appellant, Kahatunnisa, therefore, could not be considered as the successor to Khutbe Alam, the maternal grandfather of the Respondent.

The order of the Deputy Commissioner is, I think, correct; and I decline to interfere.

BEFORE THE GOVERNMENT OF MYSORE, BANGALORE.

Muzrai Appeal No. 18/38-39.

Appellant:- Syed Shah Mohammed Mohideen Khadri

-Vs-

Respondent:- Khutha Alam Sha Khadri

Stay application.

The appellant abovenamed begs to state as follows:-

1. The appellant has preferred the above appeal against the order passed by the Learned Muzrai Commissioner, Bangalore in Muz. A. No. 38 of 37-38 confirming the order of the Learned - Deputy Commissioner, in Muz O.S. 1171 of 35- 36 directing the respondent to be the sole Muthuvalli of Maralawadi Makkan, in the place of the appellant.

2. That owing to the disputes between the appellant and the respondent relating to their respective rights to perform the services of Muzwar of the Maralawadi Makkan and the sharing of the remuneration, the matter is now in appeal in this Hon'ble court.

3. That the disputes are now nearly six years old and since then the amounts receivable by the Muzawar and the gutta amounts due and - collected for the Makkan have remained in deposit in tact.

4. That now that the respondent has obtained orders in his favour in the lower appellate court as opposed to the orders passed in my favour by the Sub Division Officer,. the respondent has been trying to draw the moniesand I am reliably informed that the Amildar of Kankanhalli is also agreeable to disburse the payment to the respondent.

5. That I have a good case to urge in this appeal and in the event my rights as Muzavar are established in this appeal, I shall have no chance of obtaining restitution from the respondent if he is now allowed to draw the money which is in deposit.

6. That it will be just and equitable if the status quo is maintained until the disposal of this appeal as the amount involved is a very substantial amount of about Rs.1,800/-.

7. That according to my case, I am rightly entitled for a moiety of the amount now - available in deposit and the respondent has no manner of right to obtain the whole amount. That it is, therefore, just and expedient that the amount is retained in deposit by the Amildar, Kankanahalli pending disposal of this appeal.

W h e r e f o r e, the appellant prays that this Hon'ble court may kindly be pleased to pass an order staying the execution of the orders of Lower Courts and the payment of the Makhan amount now held in deposit in Government, pending disposal of this appeal.

Appeal against the orders of the Muzrai Commissioner dated 3rd May 1939 in Muzrai Appeal 18 of 1937-38 upholding the order of the Deputy Commissioner, Bangalore District in the matter of the management of the Mohadeen Momin Sha Khadri and Gayasuddin Sha Khadri Makhan at Maralavadi, Kankanhalli Taluk. The facts of the case are explained in the orders of the lower courts.

The appeal was heard on 6th January 1940 when both parties with their counsels were present and were heard.

ORDER NO. 1621 / Revenue 388-38-7

Dated, Bangalore 3rd February 1940.

The order of the Muzrai Commissioner is quite correct. The lands in question are Devadaya Inams over which private rights cannot be set up or recognised. The order passed by the Sub Division Officer, Closepet in 1926 was clearly illegal and it cannot create any rights to the lands for the appellant.

The appeal is dismissed.
